Ethereum Classic (ETC) was launched as a hard fork of Ethereum (ETH) in 2016 due to the disagreement of a part of users to manually interfere in the blockchain. In this article, we'll dive into the latest Ethereum Classic price prediction for 2023, 2025 and 2030, and its potential prospects as a long-term investment.

Now that ETH has completed its transition to a proof-of-stake (PoS) consensus mechanism from a proof-of-work (PoW) one while ETC maintains its PoW status, the latter could turn out to prove more popular as a store of value, thanks to its cheaper price.

What is Ethereum Classic?

Founded by Vitalik Buterin and the Ethereum Foundation, Ethereum Classic is a blockchain that was built due to the split of the Ethereum blockchain into two separate chains after a disagreement among its community members.

In June 2016, members of the Ethereum community began an intense debate over a potential hard fork, or split, after a hack of the decentralised autonomous organisation (DAO) that resulted in the theft of 3.6 million ether coins.

Eventually, the side urging for a revision to the blockchain eventually won the argument and created a hard fork of Ethereum, which is now ETH, the second biggest crypto.

Ethereum Classic, on the other hand, is a continuation of the original blockchain after a substantial number of miners decided not to go with the fork. They held to the principle that “code is law,” despite the hack.

Hence, in July 2016, the Ethereum network officially forked into two blockchains: Ethereum and Ethereum Classic. Exchanges supported both blockchains, allowing the Ethereum Classic legacy network to continue with ETC as its native coin. Post the split, ETH holders at the time received the same amount of ETC in their wallets for free.

Ethereum Classic uses proof of work to validate transactions. However, after the Merge in September 2022, Ethereum recently switched to the proof of stake consensus, making it sustainable.

Some of the use cases for ETH are as follows:

- Decentralized autonomous organizations (DAOs)
- Layer 1 network
- Layer 2 solutions (network of networks)
- Enterprise Ethereum
- Smart contracts
- Network of tokens
- Non-fungible tokens (NFTs)

Some of the use cases for ETC are as follows:

- Utility token for decentralized applications (dApps)
- NFT dApps
- Censorship resistance
- Store of value

Key Developments of Ethereum Classic

Ever since its inception, Ethereum Classic has achieved a lot within a span of a few years. Here are some of Ethereum Classic's key developments post the hard fork:

- In July 2016, ETC was listed by Poloniex
- In August 2016, DAO funds unlocked on ETC
- In October 2016, Gas Repriceupgrade took place
- In January 2017, Die Hard upgrade took place
- In March 2017, a monetary policy consensus was formed
- In December 2017, the Gothamupgrade took place
- In October 2018, Coinbase listed ETC
- In September 2019, the Atlantisupgrade took place
- In January 2020, the Aghartaupgrade took place
- In November 2020, the Thanosupgrade took place
- In July 2021, the Magnetoupgrade took place
- In February 2022, the Mystiqueupgrade took place
- In March 2022, ETC welcomed a new hash rate
- In April 2022, the Ethereum Classic DAO was formed with a mission to future-proof the network's development via an open-source development fund

- In July 2022, Vitalik Buterin endorsed Ethereum Classic
- In July 2022, Antpool supported the Ethereum Classic ecosystem with a $10M investment
- In August 2022, the ETC hash rate surged

Current Ethereum Classic Price

At the time of writing, Ethereum Classic is trading at $19.58 with a market capitalization of $2,769,682,151, ranking #28 amongst all cryptocurrencies by that metric. In the past 24 hours, the ETC coin price has surged by 10.53% with a trading volume of $345,802,222.

The current price level means that Ethereum Classic has witnessed an overall rise of 15.0% in the past seven days and 30.2% in the past fortnight. The ETC price has also moved above the important support level at $16.15, the lowest level on March 10th.

Therefore, there is a likelihood that the price will continue rising as buyers target the year-to-date high of $25, which is about 28% above the current level. A move below the support at $16.15 will invalidate the bullish view.

Now let's move on to the ETC price prediction for 2023 and beyond.

Ethereum Classic Price Prediction 2030

The Ethereum Classic ecosystem is actively growing with new users and partnerships and may remain viable in the long term. Our Ethereum Classic price prediction 2030 forecasts that the Ethereum Classic price is expected to range between $138.04 and $149.58 in 2030.

Here, it's worth pointing out that 2030 is still a long way away. 7 years down the line, the crypto market could be affected by a host of different events and updates, each of which is difficult to ascertain. Ergo, it's best that predictions like these are taken with a pinch of salt.

Is Ethereum Classic a Good Investment?

One advantage of Ethereum Classic over its competition is its immutability, which means that once a transaction is recorded on the blockchain, it cannot be changed. This provides a high level of security and transparency, making it attractive to businesses and individuals who value these attributes. Additionally, Ethereum Classic's focus on decentralization and community governance makes it a popular choice among those who prioritize these ideals.

On the other hand, however, it faces a fierce competition from other similar crypto projects, does not stand out with its technology and innovation, does not have a genuine community (not counting speculators and hype-chasing crowd) and the team behind the project is unproven.

Therefore, regarding the "should you buy Ethereum Classic?" question, we leave it up to you to decide.

In closing, please know the forecast figures are generated using our price prediction tool and in that matter, not a guarantee, that the actual price action will follow what we mentioned. Forecasts are not immune to changing circumstances and will be updated with new developments. Always do your own research and evaluate all necessary factors before making any investment.
